6 Reasons Legislators Should Reject WHO's Pandemic Proposals

The international community can benefit from coordination in health, but it would be reckless to entrust that role to an organization that clearly serves the interests of corporations and a few powerful individuals.

Democracies and sane societies are built on rationalism and honesty. They may not always exhibit this, but these values must underpin major decisions. Without them, neither democracy nor justice is sustainable.

They are replaced by a structure in which the few dictate to the many, and the excesses of feudalism, slavery, or fascism rise to dominance. This is why so many fought so hard, for so long, in defense of these ideals.

People in democratic countries then elect representatives to the privileged position of guardians of their freedom.

The World Health Organization (WHO) is promoting a pandemic treaty and amendments to the existing International Health Regulations (IHR), to increase its power during health emergencies.

These proposals also broaden the scope of emergencies to include potential rather than actual harm.

The draft treaty suggests a definition of "One Health" that encompasses any occurrence in the biosphere that could impact human well-being. This decision-making power will be placed in the hands of a single person, the WHO director-general.

The WHO will require countries to sign on to these agreements to suppress and censor the voices of those who question the director-general's dictates.

The two proposals, detailed elsewhere, aim to expand an international bureaucracy for health emergencies with an additional annual budget estimated by the World Bank at three times the WHO's current budget.

This program is heavily backed by the WHO's major individual and corporate sponsors, entities that will directly benefit from the commodity-centered responses that are proposed. However, it will be mainly funded by taxpayers.

This is a new model for the WHO and for public health. The WHO was originally intended to serve countries, not instruct them.

The proposals aim to reduce individual and national decision-making power, or sovereignty, replacing this with obedience to the WHO's recommendations.

When the WHO director-general recently suggested that the above was untrue, he was not reflecting the WHO's proposals, but a separate, public messaging campaign. In WHO parlance, he was spreading misinformation.

Individual sovereignty and human rights were once central to public health. These concepts are commonly exercised through elected representatives, and through the retention of inalienable rights of a person in decisions over their own body.

Anti-fascist agreements such as the Nuremberg Code are based on this understanding. These alone are compelling reasons to oppose these WHO proposals. But there are other compelling reasons why these proposals are both ridiculous and dangerous.

Developing a drug cartel

Much of the WHO's funding comes from private and corporate sponsors, who specify how their money will be used. The companies have a responsibility to their shareholders to use this relationship to increase profits, whilst individuals are directly invested in companies that will gain from the WHO's health emergency proposals. We saw this during COVID-19.

A lack of interest from major media, which derive their largest private advertising revenue from the same companies, should not be taken as a reason to ignore it.

The WHO's sponsors seek to profit by it taking control of potentially profitable aspects of health away from representative governments, so that their products can be mandated for use more broadly, and more often.

Undoing democracy

It is right and fair that all countries should be represented at the World Health Assembly.

However, much of the world's population lives under authoritarian governments and military dictatorships. The current WHO director-general was a minister in a dictatorial government.

This is fine for an organization that convenes meetings and names diseases. But it is obviously inappropriate for a democratic country to cede authority over its own citizens to such an entity, and to unaccountable international officials subject to conflict of interest, influences and biases.

Public health responses should depend entirely on a population's own values and priorities, not that of foreign dictators or their appointees. It would be stupid to give control to those espousing quite opposite values.

Obvious incompetence

Before entrusting one's health to others, it is essential to know that they are competent. Despite having previous evidence-based guidelines for pandemics, the WHO lost the plot disastrously with COVID-19.

It supported policies that have worsened such diseases as malaria, tuberculosis and malnutrition, and increased debt and poverty to lock in poorer health for the next generation.

These policies increased child labor and facilitated the rape of millions of girls forced into child marriage, whilst denying formal education to hundreds of millions of children.

Sick elderly people were unable to get care, while healthy people were confined at home. They have promoted the largest upwards concentration of wealth, and its consequent mass impoverishment, in history.

For the past two years, the WHO has embarked on a project to mass vaccinate 70% of African populations, despite half the population being under 20 years of age so at minimal risk, and the WHO's own study showing the vast majority had already had COVID-19.

This program is the most expensive, per year, that the WHO has ever promoted. It is now seeking powers that will enable them to repeat these types of responses, often.

Disdain for human rights

Countries adopting the proposed IHR amendments will accept WHO recommendations as obligatory. The list covered in the IHR includes border closures and refusal of individual travel, isolation of "suspect" persons, required medical examinations and vaccination, exit screening and requirements of proof of testing.

These will be imposed on a country's own citizens when an individual in this organization sponsored by large multinational corporations and wealthy investors decides, independently, that an undefined health "threat" poses a risk to other countries.

There are no clear criteria for "risk," and no need to demonstrate harm, for this draconian removal of basic human rights to be imposed.

The WHO director-general will not even have to consult and obtain wider consent. Other initiatives are underway to ensure that the required vaccinations will not need to undergo normal safety testing.

There is no soul-searching regarding the devastation caused to individuals and economies through similar policies implemented during COVID-19.

Rather, the WHO and partners are claiming increased urgency, using irrelevant outbreaks such as Monkeypox to justify their haste. This is community-driven health, and post–World War II human rights, turned upside down.

A self-perpetuating funding black hole

The system proposed by the WHO will put in place a global health bureaucracy quite different from that traditionally sustained by the WHO.

The organization will assess biennially each country's readiness to respond to rare events and demand rectification. Intensive surveillance will find the new virus variants that always evolve in nature.

Rather than allowing these variants to fade away unnoticed, this bureaucracy will sequence them, name them, decide they pose a threat and institute the society- and economy-wrecking measures they have honed since 2020.

Although the WHO recorded just one mild "pandemic" per generation for the past 100 years, this system makes the proclamation of frequent emergencies inevitable. Such "success" will be an essential justification to maintain funding.

The response will include lockdowns and border closures, and then mass testing and vaccination "to escape these lockdowns and save the economy."

Media will sell breaking news, counting infections and available hospital beds whilst offering no context; health departments will tout essential workers as heroes at the international, regional and national levels. COVID-19 established this model.

In a country with a functioning constitutional democracy, a system based on such perverse incentives would not be allowed. But WHO does not operate under any national jurisdiction, or answer directly to any population.

It does not have to endure the negative impacts of its dictates. It is prioritizing its sponsors' needs, and seeking to impose them on distant others. If it is to take this funding and pay its staff salaries, it has no choice.

Being realistic about health

The WHO is not the organization it was 40 years ago. Based on disease burden (what maims and kills people), the big killers of humanity apart from old age are the non-communicable diseases (i.e. most cancers, heart disease, strokes, diabetes and other metabolic diseases), infectious diseases such as tuberculosis, HIV/AIDS, malaria and the many maladies arising from childhood malnutrition.

By comparison, pandemics have taken a minimal toll on humanity in the past century.

Uninhibited by such realities, the WHO still considers COVID-19 (average age of death >75 years), and even monkeypox (<100 deaths globally) to be international emergencies.

The WHO's funding arrangements, its track record, and the perverse nature of its proposed pandemic response should be enough to render these proposed agreements anathema in democratic states.

If implemented, they should make WHO unfit to receive public funding or provide health advice. The international community can benefit from coordination in health, but it would be reckless to entrust that role to an organization clearly serving other interests.

An incredibly huge percentage of people worldwide have NO idea this treaty is on the table and about to be signed (in May 2023) by dozens of these Countries leaders. I've been following this horrible treaty development for the last 18 months and of all the scary NWO agendas slowly manifesting themselves this, in my opinion, is TRULY one of the scariest things EVER that is coming to fruition.
I don't know how to wake people en-mass up to this power grab and the fact that EVERY country who signs this will TRULY be forfeiting any sovereignty they once had. SOMEHOW every freedom loving organization on the planet MUST get involved, raise funds through crowd funding or whatever means necessary and immediately start filing legal actions to stop this power grab.
This insanity being pushed by these satanic forces CANNOT be allowed to happen !!

BREAKING NEWS: 20 million global deaths directly attributed to the Covid Vaccines and 2.2 billion serious adverse reactions. These numbers are best estimates using government data. Anthony Fauci, Bill Gates, Ralph Baric, Tedros and others created a Pandemic to inject the world.

They first created a fraudulent Pandemic by deliberately releasing Covid-19 which they engineered in the United States North Carolina Chapel Hill University by Ralph S. Baric and his team which Anthony Fauci funded. Then they used a fraudulent PCR test to create excess case numbers. Then they blocked safe early treatments such as Ivermectin in order to get EUA approval for the Covid Vaccines.

The Gates Cartel has another idea coming soon!

April 3, 2023 Eat Your Vaccines: mRNA Gene Therapy Is Coming to the Food Supply THIS MONTH

They've given up on a needle in every arm. Now they're coming for what you eat. "I've got documents from the NIH – from 2002 – talking about integrating vaccines into foods," announced attorney Tom Renz in an eye-opening interview with Dr. Naomi Wolf.

I would say that the work of some scientists looking into this seems to suggest this is already taking place in spite of George Soros' and probably Bill Gates' fact checkers. They seem to try to discredit anything and everything even if it is the truth. I think it was on Stew Peters that I saw Dr. Ana Mihalcea had analyzed store bought meats and found nanotech particles in them. The video can be found here:
https://rumble.com/v2g82ds-...

This is quite disturbing as there has been evidence for some time now that GMO food and processed foods can worsen the reactions to the injections combined with microwave frequency technology. If we cannot even get away from it in the healthy foods we are eating, then what they are doing should be considered no less than crimes against all of creation, honestly,

June 14, 2020 Bill Gates and the Depopulation Agenda. Robert F. Kennedy Junior Calls for an Investigation

Most of their vaccination program had disastrous results, causing the very illness (polio, for example in India) and sterilizing young women (Kenya, with modified tetanus vaccines). Many of the children died. Many of the programs were carried out with the backing of the WHO and – yes – the UN Agency responsible for the Protection of Children, UNICEF.

The "food" system is 100% toxic! That ultra-processed omega-6, hydrogenated fat laden garbage, is why the majority of the population (globally) is so sick! It is also changing people's DNA, due to a "Novel Protein" that Monsatan created...a little known fact. The first link mentions the plan to buy up all the land - long before billy boy bought his hundreds of thousands of acres!

Purchase and consume locally sourced food, especially meats, so you know where it comes from and the chain from growth to your table. These globalists are EVIL and are still after the ninety percent reduction in Earth's human population they have long desired. Just because the Georgia guide stones were destroyed (probably by the globalists themselves) does not mean for a moment that they have given up on that goal: Kill off billions and leave the remainder with difficulties conceiving and bearing children. LOOK AROUND. WE ARE IN A BATTLE BETWEEN GOOD AND EVIL. Mark of the beast is coming: Patent WO / 2020/060606 by Microsoft corporation under Bill Gates for Cryptocurrency system using BODY ACTIVITY DATA. "And the second beast required all people small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark— the name of the beast or the number of its name." I recall something to the effect: "This calls for wisdom; it is the number of a man and his number is 666". What a coincidence that Microsoft/billy boy's patent contains 060606. The truth hiding in plain sight?

I don't believe in frequent coincidence. I do believe there is satanic evil in the world and we are in the end times as was foretold. Matthew 24

The late Professor Emeritus Joe Cummins of Western University London, Ontario told us of the experimental agricultural projects to use food as the delivery system for vaccines. This is going back ten or more years. They have probably really streamlined all that in the last decade.

It appears from the look of it that the WHO is under the control of the U.S., China, and Pharmaceutical companies and because it is a U.N. military organization too as Katherine Watt and others have pointed out, that means that they really have no business dictating to other nations what public health measures they should be taking given the level of documented corruption shown by the two over decades.

We should not be even considering just a simple rejection of these amendments to the UN/WHO IHR because they were agreed to unlawfully by way of the first Agenda 21 without any public knowledge by George H.W. Bush initially and then other presidents simply signed on as the years have passed but especially significant is the 2005 IHR agreed to by George W. Bush. Contrary to its title, Agenda 21 a supposed legally binding document for the 196 signatories was expansive and included issues of public health and things like women's issues that really the Agenda 2030 is just an updated version like the WHO IHR. Somehow, all these topics as we have seen have been used not for good as they suggest to us but for corruption, manipulation, and control. It would appear from this early agreement, they already believe they have achieved their one world government since they all have the same ideology, the same agenda, and the same revenue sources. When people talk about the WHO IHR, the same countries are bound by those that signed onto Agenda 21, so to me

This evil agreement will be the end of America's sovereignty and Constitution. We will be under the godless control of a communist controlled regime (the WHO is controlled by Communist China). What will follow is global surveillance, lockdowns for no reason, freezing of your bank account if you do not comply, forced vaccinations, etc.

Call your Senators and Congressmen/women and tell them you do not consent to giving up America's sovereignty of healthcare. Ask them to support Andy Bigg's (of AZ) bill, H.R.79, the WHO Withdrawal Act. Call Speaker McCarthy's office and ask that he tie raising the debt ceiling to having the US exit the WHO and not give one more penny to the corrupt Biden administration, which is still under emergency powers for no good reason. 194 nations have one vote. This will take place the last week of May in Geneva, Switzerland. Pray and fast for America.

Of course, the Biden puppet-in-chief is all in as he is controlled by China. He is a traitor to this country and must be removed from office immediately. Pray for our nation. Pray that the God of the Bible will not let this pass. Last year, one country, Botswana, stopped it by saying no.

If this agreement does pass, the rapture of the church is eminent. All of God's children are going up while the godless who reject Christ and who are left behind will meet their next global leader, the Anti-Christ. Scripture tells us that all nations will come under the control of the Anti-Christ during the Tribulation period. That includes America. When it will happen is still unknown, but this agreement could be the beginning of our end.

Very informative article. The Brownstone Institute is notorious for civil rights publications. The WHO is not now the organization it was created to be. The United States of America leads the world in the ability to implement proper healthcare and response to pandemics. Had we listened to our own doctors regarding the Covid response, we would have saved many lives. We don't need the WHO. January 9, 2023, a bill was introduced to the House and referred to the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. (HR-79 WHO Withdrawal Act :
https://www.congress.gov/bi... No activity since then! It is not even scheduled for a hearing. If we are to prevent the overreach and control of the WHO in health care for the United States, our legislature needs to act on the proposed bill. Write or call your representatives!

WHO does not have the peoples well being at heart. It is literally a terrorist type killing creation. It should be dismantled. Its funding should be taken. Its sponsors and its entire network should be charged with world treason.

I believe shareholders must be made culpable as far as pharmaceutical companies go , start including shareholders in class action claims. They are a part owner in the product they are benefiting from unsafe poisons, they are guilty of aiding the supply of harmful drugs and failing full disclosure . If we start going after the shareholders pharma Loses its cred they must be held accountable because they hold the company accountable if their shares are not performing but no one is holding the shareholder accountable
